CO Becomes Honourary Member of Carling Conservation Club

G/C D. A. Willis is shown signing a deerskin pledge in recognition of his acceptance of Honourary Membership in the newly formed Carling Conservation Club.

"Yours to protect — yours to enjoy." This motto and the basic yet simple truth it embodies are the keystone ideas which brought together on November 19th, a group of like-minded men to participate in the inaugural meeting of the Manitoba Carling Conservation Club.

The common interest shared by this group is their regard and deep concern for a subject of ever increasing importance to everyone, namely the care and preservation of land, wildlife and natural resources in Manitoba.

Honourary Memberships in the Conservation Club were accorded at Tuesday's inaugural ceremonies to: government officials; civic, business and service leaders from many walks of life, and to members of the news media. Among the dignitaries honoured were His Honour The Lieutenant-Governor of Manitoba, officials of the Provincial Government's Conservation Dept., Winnipeg's Mayor and Chief Constable, The Commanding Officer of RCAF Stn. Winnipeg and the RCMP Commissioner for the Manitoba region.

All members inscribed their names on a framed deerskin signifying their pledge to uphold club laws by protecting and preserving the province's natural resources.

The club, part of a national organization with a federal charter, was established in September, 1963 by the Carling Breweries (Manitoba) Limited to create a deeper interest in the field of conservation.

The many Manitobans who have joined since then have pledged themselves to protect natural resources, obey fish and game laws, and to promote greater understanding and appreciation of conservation and the benefits it produces.

Carling officials attending the inaugural meeting today emphasized that conservation is of interest, and important, to every Manitoban, as a shareholder in the province's natural wealth, and not the duty of a chosen few. It was their hope that the support and interest engendered by the present membership nucleus would help eventually to spread the "club's" message to all parts of the province.

Attending the meeting was an Indian princess in full regalia, a symbol of Canada's original people who for centuries depended upon the natural resources of this country for their very existence.

The five-point pledge enjoins members: to guard the natural resources of their country; to obey laws governing wildlife and thus eliminate useless waste; to promote the importance, wise use and protection of forest resources; to further public understanding of conservation and its benefits; and to follow the club motto.

The furtherance of these ideals, to which the Carling Conservation Club is dedicated, is a purpose that well deserves the support of all personnel at RCAF Station Winnipeg.

An Age of Kings

The following is a synopsis of the fifth in a series of Shakespearean plays being presented by the Winnipeg Tribune and CBC, Channel 3. This play will appear on November 27th at 6:00 p.m.

THE NEW CONSPIRACY

The spark of rebellion is set off again. Falstaff, now a "hero" of the war, and Prince Hal return enthusiastically to their madcap life at the Boar's Head.

Northumberland nervously awaits news from the Battle of Shrewsbury. False reports of success raise his hopes—but only briefly. Word of the real outcome follows hot on the heels of the first ill-informed messenger. The rebel defeat and his courageous son's death feed his already great rage against King Henry IV. Ravenous now for Henry's throne and power, Northumberland begins to scheme afresh and scout around for new allies.

Meanwhile, Sir John Falstaff returns from the battle to receive a summons for debt from the hostess of the Boar's Head. But the witty knight manages to cajole the lord chief justice and wheedle the gullible hostess into withdrawing the action—and even induces her to lend him more money for his riotous living.

The King's fortunes, for the moment, flourish . . . and Prince Hal, though resolving to abandon his cronies in Eastcheap, goes back to the Boar's Head with Falstaff and his merry crew.

In the North, the Archbishop of York, enticed by Northumberland, plans to raise a new rebel army.

THE VOODOO

Considered one of the world's most formidable fighter aircraft, the McDonnell CF-101B Voodoo supersonic all-weather interceptor was acquired by the RCAF in 1961 to replace the CF-100 in Air Defence Command.

The twin-engine, two-place Voodoo's high speed, extreme combat radius, exceptional climb performance and ability to operate at great heights give it unusual striking power. As a weapon platform it has great flexibility, being able to accommodate a wide variety of rockets and missiles.

The RCAF has five squadrons of CF-101B Voodoos on air defence duty. They are based at Comox, B.C., North Bay, and Uplands, Ont., Bagotville, P.Q. and Chatham, N.B.

SCOUT NEWS

The local scout troop of the 51st Winnipeg (R C A F) Group are again active for the season after a brief lay off during the summer months. Every indication points to a very successful and enjoyable year for our scouts. The leaders and scouts are certainly all fired up and eager so we are sure a great deal will be heard from these eager beavers between now and camp time next year.

Naturally, many changes have taken place this fall in the organization: transfers, boys leaving the troop and new aspiring scouts joining or coming up from the Cub packs. However, it is understood that a smooth change-over has taken place and everyone is down to the serious and pleasant task of scouting. In fact, one of the first outings was held over the weekend of 2-3 Nov. An "Overnite Camp" was held under the leadership of Scoutmaster Dave Randall and Assistant Ken Halbert.

The "Overnite Camp" was held out at the north end of Whytewold Road and was enjoyed by all present. This Camp was organized to teach our scouts how to set up and camp overnight with a minimum of equipment and materials, and more or less live on the bare necessities. This, the scouts proved, can be done and still be very enjoyable. Each and every one of them is hoping for more such exercises in the very near future. Many of these young men can easily put us older types to shame when it comes to improvising and overcoming small obstacles.

In addition to having the Scout Troop out for an exercise, the leaders decided the cubs would be interested in some outdoor activities. Consequently, on Sunday afternoon, the four Cub packs visited the Camp Site and joined the scouts in their activities.

During the day, a "Going Up" ceremony was held and 18 cubs went up to the scout troop. Two of these cubs were invested into the troop, along with 4 new direct entry scouts. Those invested were: Ricky Volkmar, Ben Le Neveu, Ricky Arsenaunt, Phil Martin, Bob Mason and Lloyd Fromant. Lots of success to all the cubs going up to scouts and to the new boys joining.

The scout troop this year has been divided into four patrols as follows:

Tiger—Patrol Leader Wayne O'Keefe.

Panther—Patrol Leader Bob Askew.

Owls—Patrol Leader Ron Taylor. Stags—Patrol Leader Lou Stevenson.

Scouter Randall advises that the scouts were very close to providing their own fresh meat during the outing. A rabbit very foolishly showed up in camp and the scouts almost had had him but luckily for the rabbit, it turned dark. However, after such a chase, Scouter Randall believes the rabbit would have been too tough and thin to be of any value.

BROWNIES AND GUIDES

On November 6th a large fly-up ceremony took place in Building 24 on the station. Four Brownie packs and two Guide Companies joined together for the ceremonies.

Mrs. Oram, district commissioner, presented kings and proficiency badges to Brownies before they joined their new Guide Companies. Brownies who flew-up to Guides were: Ruth Pearson of the 94th Pack, Karen Moore, Judith Baptiste, and Sylvia Crossley of the 121st Pack, Carol Bestick and Elaine Kerwin of the 148th Pack, and Beth McArter, Flora White, and Donna Dunsmore of the 25th Brownie Pack.

Cathy Tunstead was a walk-up Brownie from the 121st Brownie Pack, however she did something very unusual in Brownies. She joined Brownies later than most girls and in one short year managed to pass all the tests which normally take a Brownie 3 years to complete. The only reason Cathy was unable to fly-up to Guides was that it is required of a Brownie to have 2 years of Brownie service to be eligible to fly-up to Guides. Cathy must have worked very hard to manage to pass so many tests in such a short period of time. Well done, young lady!

Proficiency badges presented were: Golden Bar to Shirley Fleet of the 94th Pack, Golden Hand to Jean Campbell and Ruth Pearson of the 94th Pack, Pathfinders and Athletes Badges to Margaret Murchy of the 148th Pack, Golden Hand and Athletes Badge to Karen Moore, Toy-makers and Collectors Badge to Brenda Moore, and Collectors Badge to Roseleen Husband. Guide Proficiency Badges: Swimmer and Pioneer Badge to Ann McArter of the 25th Company, and Second Class Badge to Janet Merkley.

Brownies going up into Guides were received by Patrol Leaders and Guide Captains. After ceremonies were completed a game was played and the Packs and Companies were then dismissed with taps.

SENIOR TEENS

A special church service led by the Junior Teens was held on November 17th in the Protestant Chapel. The congregation consisted of parents of the Junior Teens and the Senior Teen group.

Later, at our own meeting in the chapel annex, we viewed the final film in the series "The Earth and Mankind".

A copy of the new model constitution was read amidst gales of laughter. We strongly urge all members of the senior teens to attend next week's meeting in the interest of the group's future.

There will be a beatnik dance on Saturday, November 30th, in Building 17. The admission is 25c per person and the dance will be from 8 until 12 o'clock. Everyone is welcome to attend.

FROM THE BIBLE

"The Relation Between Faith and Action"

Now what use is it, my brothers, for a man to say he "has faith", if his actions do not correspond with it? Could that sort of faith save anyone's soul? If a fellow man or woman has no clothes to wear and nothing to eat, and one of you say, "Good Luck to you I hope you'll keep warm and find enough to eat", and yet give them nothing to meet their physical needs, what on earth is the good of that? Yet that is exactly what a bare faith without a corresponding life is like—useless and dead. If we only "have faith" a man could easily challenge us by saying, "You say that you have faith and I have merely good actions. Well, all you can do is to show me a faith without corresponding actions, but I can show you by my actions that I have faith as well."

To the man who thinks that faith by itself is enough, I feel inclined to say, "So you believe that there is one God? That's fine. So do all the devils in hell, and shudder in terror!" For, my dear, short-sighted man, can't you see far enough to realize that faith without the right actions is dead and useless? Think of Abraham, our ancestor. Wasn't it his action which really justified him in God's sight when his faith led him to offer his son Isaac on the altar? Can't you see that his faith and his actions were, so to speak, partners—that his faith was implemented by his deed? ... Yes, faith without action is as dead as a body without a soul.

(Letter of St. James, chapter 2, translated by Phillips).

CANADIAN BIBLE SOCIETY

Project for Advent in Chapel (P)

This Sunday at the Chapel (P), boxes will be given to Sunday School children and members of the congregation. Contributions and self-denial gifts for the work of the Canadian Bible Society may be put in these boxes through the season of Advent. The boxes and other contributions will be received at the Chapel on Sunday, 29 Dec. Advent and Christmas are times when we remember the coming of Christ, God's gift to us. So, in thankfulness, we have opportunity to give to the Society which provides Bibles and portions of Scripture throughout the world.

From Sunday next until 1 Dec, there will be a display in the Chapel of something of the work of the Bible Society. In the Chapel Rooms there will be Bibles and religious books on display and for sale. There will be many excellent suggestions for Christmas gifts of a religious nature. You are invited to call in and browse around.

Catholic Women's League

On Friday, Nov. 8th, a reception was held for Father D'Avignon, in the Chaplain's quarters. This followed Benediction, at which time Father D'Avignon spoke to us, making particular mention of the C.W.L. and the fact that within a year he hopes to see our own RCAF group organized. We will then be 8,000 strong, and should be able to make our voices heard for our various needs in the service life, he said. The reception was not large, but was very enjoyable, thanks in no small part to our food convenor, Rita Thrussell, who always works so hard to make things run smoothly. It was a pity that many people were unable to come, as Father D'Avignon is a very interesting talker, and really has our interests at heart.

Our regular monthly meeting was held on Monday Nov. 11th, at 8.30 p.m. in the Chapel, with just over 30 ladies present, including two new members. The big subject of discussion was our annual bake sale, to be held on Wednesday, Dec. 4th, in the old drill hall, starting at 7 p.m. and continuing right on through bingo. Doreen Desjardins, who is convening the sale, made many suggestions as to the type of thing we might like to contribute, and in case you weren't at the meeting, here they are: Any kind of baking, particularly buns and bread. Home-made candy, (lots of it!), pickles or preserves. Doll clothes, especially for the popular "Barbie" and "Ken" dolls, or any other sewing, knitting or crocheting. Small house plants and little novelty Christmas items such as glow-candles, corsages, Christmas stockings, etc. We will also accept any articles of clothing which are nearly new, as long as they are in very good condition. There will be a complete list of addresses at which you may leave any of these articles posted in the back of the Chapel, and also in next week's "Voxair". Edna McDonald has very kindly offered to make a hat to be raffled at the bake sale, and there will be a second prize of a floral table centre. The raffle tickets will be available in the religious goods store at the back of the Chapel any time for those who wish to buy them in advance, or better still take a book, or several, to sell. (Let the kids sell some Mom, they love doing it!).

Further business at the meeting covered C.W.L. pins which will be ordered, and available shortly to members for approximately $1.50. Also it was carried that we should again pay a year's phone bill for a multiple sclerosis patient as we have done in the past.

We were very sorry to have to bid farewell to our secretary, Inga Blundell, who is moving to Gimli. Our president, Peggy Sinclair, thanked her for her good work and presented her with a silver C.W.L. spoon. Also receiving a silver spoon, along with our thanks and good wishes, is Edie Killoran, who is on her way to Cold Lake.

Father Grant spoke to us briefly to end the meeting, asking us to pray for the many intentions for which he offers his daily Mass. He also mentioned that a Christmas party is being planned for the Y.C.S. groups, (our teen-agers) and that he would like to know of somebody who could lead them in square dancing for a short time on this occasion. So if you could offer your help in this matter, I'm sure he'd be glad to hear from you.

Following the meeting, Mrs. Kostiuk, of the Station Beauty Salon, came and gave us a very interesting talk and demonstration of hair-dressing, assisted by her very able assistant "Angie" and her obliging model, Mrs. Anderson. We were all fascinated, and bombarded Mrs. Kostiuk with questions about hair care, so I think we all learned a lot.

The evening was very pleasantly rounded off with a tasty lunch and coffee. That's all for this week, feel free to call me any time, Pam Pawlak VE 2-4466. 'Bye now, and God bless you!

SERGEANTS' MESS

By Sgt. P. THORMIN

BONSPIEL RESULTS

After the chips had been swept up, the Mess Champions for '63 were:

Sgt. Bob Maxwell, Sgt. Jack Doerksen, Mr. Doug Gibbs, Sgt. Ken Stephensen.

Runner up in B Group were: Sgt. Bill Eaton, WO2 Bert Holmes, FS Will Scott, Sgt. Earl Everill.

The winners of the C group were:

FS Bob McHardy, WO1 Bill Serne, WO1 Jack Munn, Sgt. Smith.

The prizes as advertised came in the form of just about everything imaginable and included potatoes and anti-freeze. The mess champions were presented with large ashtrays with a curling motif engraved on them for their stirring performance and victory.

In the eyes of their committee, the Associated Members night was a huge success last Saturday evening when approximately 375 people attended the annual get-together.

Don't forget the Grey Cup afternoon in the mess and dance later on in the evening. Where else could you cheer the best teams without fear of reprisal from a rabid Bomber fan, and enjoy yourself at the same time.

Another reminder of the New Year ticket sale. If you plan to attend, get your baby sitter contracted and buy your tickets early. They go on sale next month from the 3 Dec to the 12 Dec.

DISTAFF SIDE

tables laden with baking which had been donated by many Protestant families of the three housing areas. In the south-east corner of the large hall was a gaily decorated fish pond for the enjoyment of the younger children. The western portion of the hall was cordoned off to make a large and attractive tea room. In the tea room, the head table, which was in the centre of the tea room area, was covered in white damask with silver services at either end and a miniature Christmas tree as a centrepiece. There were also silver plates of dainties on the head table. The tea tables were placed around the head table and were also covered with white cloths and bore colorful santa sleigh centrepieces and plates of delicious sandwiches and dainties.

At 2 p.m. the rope over the entrance was dropped by Padre White to officially open the bazaar. As always, there was a great rush for the sale tables and the bazaar was in full swing.

By 4 p.m. there were just a few stragglers left in the hall, with a few little groups lingering over their tea; some of the red trim was dangling on the table fronts, the floor around the fish pond was littered with wrapping papers and the ladies behind the tables were very tired but satisfied. It had been another successful bazaar. The receipts for the day totalled $588.94. There is still a sum to come in from ticket sales and operating expenses must be deducted. The treasurer, Mrs. Thelma Picton, will give a full financial report at our next Guild meeting on December 9th. Suffice to say that our receipts passed all expectations. Mrs. Helen Southall, our bazaar convenor, and Mrs. Frances Coulter, tea room convenor, are to be congratulated for their splendid efforts on behalf of our Guild. Mrs. Coulter's work in the tea room is a tremendous task of organizing and is of necessity always last minute work and therefore always under pressure. Mrs. Southall's work as over-all convenor of the bazaar started way back at the beginning of our Guild year last February but got into full swing in September after summer holidays were over. Since that first meeting in September it has been a steady rush for Mrs. Southall, and her position was particularly difficult due to the fact that so many of our old familiar working members of the Guild were lost to us on transfers last spring and it was necessary to fill these empty places with new girls, many of whom had never worked at bazaars before. However, the new recruits came through with flying colors and we are very proud to have them working with us. Efforts of both convenors are greatly appreciated.

We would like to say a special thank you to all the ladies and the young people who gave so generously of their time and talents to help make the bazaar successful. It would be impossible to complete such a huge undertaking if it were not for the many helping hands which come from many directions outside our small Guild to aid us every year at this time. We are most grateful for all your help. Rest assured that all your efforts have added together to provide us with funds to carry on our help to our adopted child in Vietnam and our many other charities.

Our December meeting, which is slated for December 9th in the Chapel annex, is to be a social evening with a brief report on the state of our business at that point and a pot luck supper, so that the ladies may get together to enjoy each others company and relax a little after the months of work for the bazaar. Further information will be printed on this at a later date.

THE CASE OF THE MARBLES IN DEATH ROW

A condemned man was offered an opportunity to obtain a reprieve. He was given two boxes containing 10 marbles each. One box held black marbles, the other had white

A blind man would come by and pick one marble out of one of the boxes. If the marble he picked was white he would be pardoned. If it were black, he would be executed.

How should our hero arrange the marbles to afford himself the best odds of getting a pardon?

EMERGENCY BLOOD DONATIONS

On Friday, 1 November, the Blood Transfusion Service of The Canadian Red Cross had it's supply of Group "O" blood drastically reduced. An emergency appeal was made to Station Winnipeg and, although only 20 donors were expected, 34 attended the emergency clinic held at the Red Cross Centre. As it turned out, all but three of the donations were used over the weekend.

The Station Co-ordinator, F/L F. E. Tuerk, is pleased to pass on the thanks of the Red Cross to personnel who made such an excellent response to the emergency appeal.

How about that Office Party?

Each year more people are questioning the value of the office party with emphasis on alcoholic drinks. Why?

1. Many employers find that this kind of party does not contribute to office morale (which it is supposed to do).
2. Many workers find that alcohol at these affairs, along with the general holiday mood, too easily lead to embarrassing and unpleasant incidents.
3. Many families find that otherwise happy Christmas gatherings are ruined by the member who is "not quite himself" or who is absent after an office party.
4. Traffic safety officials find that the office party creates an additional hazard at a time of year when driving conditions are often at their worst.

If you are planning an office party, REMEMBER—alcoholic drinks should play at most, only a very minor role. Join the swing to a wiser holiday pattern, and let the Christmas spirit, rather than spirits, make your celebrations joyful.

The snow we predicted last week didn't materialize in time to make the prediction come true. However, a great believer in the try, try, try again theory, we hereby predict that by circulation time we shall have snow, snow and more snow. We secretly hope for another failure.

LAC Tom Davis reported in from Baden Soellingen last week and was quite surprised, after dire warnings from friends, at the lack of snow. Although he and his Missus are both "down homers" they are looking forward to a tour in Winnipeg. We are sure Tom realizes he is not only welcome but desperately needed because when Flight Brawley saw him coming he had Tom assigned to a crew before he had a chance to say Hello.

The help situation has been further alleviated by the arrival of Cpl Jerry McAskill to T/S, LAC A. J. Allen and LAC J. A. Rankin to DAK from Repair. LAC Brian MacIntosh was moved from I&E Repair to T/S.

We welcome one and all and wish them every happiness in this wonderful section.

A training program has been initiated in the section, with the cooperation of Fire Fighting section, to qualify our personnel to assess fires and operate all types of extinguishers.

We regretfully bid farewell to Sgt Frank Chase. He is presently on embarkation leave and will be leaving for Yemen in Dec. We should really say, "Auf wieder sehen" as we are definitely planning on seeing him again. We hope Frank will be returning to Trans/Serv or at least Station Winnipeg after his tour in the Middle East.

One thing to look forward to on this transfer is the fact that 30 below is unheard of in the area . . . Being exposed to a foreign culture is broadening and the RCAF's and Canada's image can only be improved by a man like Frank.

The trip to and from Yemen should prove interesting and entertaining since, in spite of long distance flying, a person still gets to see new places.

Congratulations also on the new Meteor, Frank, we hope it serves you well.

Curling is off to a good start already and Cpl Ron Merriam's rink, defending champions, already have several wins to their credit. Transients team, led by Sgt Forman, is showing promise also. We expect this years inter-section league to be highly competitive.

Dave Ackroyd, formerly of this unit, dropped in for a chat the other day. He was employed with Autair Helicopter service until their contract to supply the Mid Canada line terminated. Dave is now writing off his qualifying exams for DOT and will no doubt be a wheel in one or another of the aircraft companies shortly.

Art Limber and Ken Tompkins proved their wood lore and skill with a 12 gauge by bringing home some quackers.

We hear from a usually reliable source that the ducks have fifth columnists nowadays. These informers catch the hunting news and plan their flights accordingly. They have also taken to night flying, having heard about hunting regulations on their pocket transistor radios. These informers, so our informer says are parroducts!

Receipts for the above donations and letters of appreciation from the Charities concerned are on file in the Stn Accounts Section. All records covering revenue received and payments made are subject to the same continuous audit requirements as service accounting records.

It will be noted that the administrative costs of $186.26 represent 1.6% of the total contributions received. This is substantially less than the cost incurred by the majority of charities organizations. Stocks of pledge cards, membership cards, receipts, etc., from the original printing are still on hand. The cost of any further supplies required will be less than the original printing and it is expected that the total administrative costs in the current year will be reduced to less than 1% of revenue.

Subsequent to 31 Dec 63, all contributions requiring receipts for income tax purposes may obtain them from the Accounts Section. Where a contributor is SOS during the year, income tax receipts will be provided on request.

Any contributors who have misplaced their membership cards during the year or who have not yet received them are requested to advise the Accounts Section and new cards will be issued immediately.

The following is a summary of current membership by rank and is published to assist in the present project of your CCSP Committee to raise the total membership to 1000 personnel.

At the end of the first year of operations, only slightly over half of the RCAF personnel serving in the Winnipeg area had decided to join the CCSP. At the present time there are 958 contributors, however due to the constantly changing personnel the actual number of contributors during the year probably exceeds 1500. The financial statement indicates what a worthwhile contribution has been made to charitable organizations in our community by all past and present members.

further cheques for $1500.00 will be forwarded in December.

Donations from the CCSP to other charitable organizations will be made directly to the charity concerned, in proportion to their campaign objectives, on a similar basis to the the donations listed in the annual financial statement. It is proposed that these payments will be made to coincide with the annual campaign of the various charities concerned.

S/L Harlo L. Jones has served as Chairman of the CCSP from the original planning stage to the end of the first year of operations and wishes to record a vote of thanks to all the section representatives and other personnel who have generously given their time and effort to make the first year of operations such a financial success. Effective 1 Nov 63, S/L H. Pridmore (SAO Local 221) has been appointed as the new Chairman and solicits the support of all those personnel who are not yet participating in the Charities Plan.

Many of you will be aware of the formation in August of this year of a federal service division to co-ordinate federal government employee support of the Community Chest of Greater Winnipeg. On behalf of the members of RCAF Winnipeg CCSP, a pledge of $6100.00 has been made for the year 1964 as our contribution to the Winnipeg Community Chest. This means that the CCSP donation to the Community Chest is included in the returns for all the Federal Government Employees in Winnipeg. The first payment cheque of $1500.00 will be forwarded in November. A

HOGGING THE ROCK

By KEN STEPHENSEN

Because of Remembrance Day, the deadline for the VOXAIR was advanced to noon Friday, 8 Nov. '63, therefore a couple of newsworthy items that occurred on the 9th Nov. missed the press deadline, however because of their interest to the club, we are reporting on them at this late date.

During the afternoon of the 9th Nov, your executive committee took to the ice in response to a challenge from the executive of the Fort Osborne Curling Club. Each club was represented by three teams with the RCAF edging the visitors two games to one. The deciding contest went right to the wire and was decided on the last rock of the day, however, the results were of little consequence and were overshadowed by the good will and friendly atmosphere that prevailed throughout the afternoon. Both executives are eagerly looking forward to a return engagement to be hosted by the Fort Osborne Curling Club, on a date yet to be announced.

On the same date, in the evening, the start of the 1963-64 Inter Club Competition got under way, with this reporter asleep at the switch. Game time was scheduled for 7 p.m. and by the time the Calgary Saskatchewan football game was over, I discovered I had missed an opportunity for a ride to the scene. Fortunately, our two club representatives were on the ball and at 6.00 p.m. left their TV sets and headed for the East St. Paul Curling Club. Our club was represented by the rinks of Curly Lord and Al Sather. Both skips fielded their own teams, Lord with Art Taylor, Third, Ed Hanney, Second and Roy Mills at Lead. Sather had Andy Anderson Third, Vic McCormack Second and Brem Murray playing Lead. Sather's rink played the 1962-63 club champions and my sources tell me they had little difficulty as all members of the Sather rink were curling in top form allowing their opponents only three points while running off the score board themselves. Such was not the case with the Lord rink, they found themselves in a real battle, the type of which should be expected in inter club competition. Lord was two down coming home but with a never say die attitude, made two beautiful shots to tie the game and salvage one point. Congratulations to both teams on a good showing.

Congratulations to Ron Powell on his selection of the "Top Ten", but as one might expect I don't agree wholeheartedly, and besides if I did, that would be the easy way out. My selections are basically the same with a few minor changes. So far this year I've picked; Patterson over Liston, Yankees over Dodgers, Calgary over Saskatchewan and Ottawa over Hamilton. Oh well, we never learn, so here are my choices in order of preference for the final standings of "A" Group.

- Sather—Has a narrow edge.
- Lord—The one to beat.
- Trimble—Could upset the apple-cart.
- Maxwell—Will press the leaders.
- Merriam — Dangerous when ready.
- Munroe—Watch out for this one.
- Price—Must be considered.
- Girard—Could better this rating.
- Graham—Late season form will tell.

Earlier this year we did a column on curling courtesy which apparently was well accepted by the majority. Unfortunately, we neglected to mention the biggest offender of them all . . . the NO-SHOW! In the last two weeks the noshow has become so prevalent that action is being considered to have repeated offenders withdrawn from the league. We certainly appreciate the fact that unexpected emergencies occasionally arise, but not as frequently as some would have us believe. When a whole team fails to show for a game, someone must have informed someone, then WHY are the opposition left in the dark? And what about the ice? If advance notice were given to the drawmaster, I'm sure we wouldn't find ourselves staring at two blank sheets of ice, as happened last week. Periodically, some team will have a legitimate excuse but there is no legitimate excuse for not informing your opponents, the draw-master, or your league representative. I'm sure this problem will soon be under control and that the habitual offenders will have no curling worries at all!

Consul Playdowns . . . Zone 10 for the Consul Playdowns is comprised of the following teams:

Granite, West Kildonan, Strathcona, Victoria, Maple Leaf, RCAF. The RCAF rink will be determined by a 16 team double draw "knock out". A $5.00 entry fee was decided upon to limit the entries to 16 teams in order that the winner can be declared by 21 Dec, and also to equip the winners with appropriate sweaters and crests. The playdowns will be held 28 Nov, 6th, 7th, 20th and 21 Dec. The first 16 teams registered will be accepted. By the time we go to press, registration will probably be complete and will be reported on next week.

Inter Club Curling . . . After the first round, the top four teams in "A" Group will represent the club in future inter club matches. These games usually produce high calibre curling and all local members are urged to come out and support the club representatives.

The complete schedule is reproduced as follows:

- Nov. 9—Saturday 7.00 p.m. RCAF at East St. Paul
- Nov. 16 — Saturday 7.00 p.m. Strathcona at RCAF
- Nov. 24 — Sunday 5.00 p.m. RCAF at Eaton's CC

- Dec. 14 — Saturday 7.00 p.m. Charleswood at RCAF
- Dec. 21 — Saturday 7.00 p.m. Morden at RCAF
- Jan. 4 — Saturday 7.00 p.m. Winter Club at RCAF

STRATHCONA vs. RCAF . . . The games took place at 7.00 p.m. last Sat. night. Curly Lord's team took on Lyle Dyker's team composed of Bob Handford Third, Bob Gordon Second and Ness Wise Lead. The big moment in the game came in the 6th end when Lord made a beautiful double takeout and stayed to count two. He then stole one in the seventh and after Dyker came back with one in the eighth, Curly blanked the last two ends. Final score Lord 6, Dyker 5. On the other sheet Trimble's team met the highly touted Barry Fry rink, with Orest Meleschuk Third, Winston Warren Second and Ray DeVuono Lead. After four ends of even play, Fry pulled away on a combination of Trimble misses and perfect draw weight by the Strathcona skip. Trimble had chances to keep it close but couldn't find his draw weight in time. He came back scoring two points in each of the last two ends, but the Fry misses and Ted's draw weight came too late. Final score Trimble 6, Fry 8.

WINNIPEG BUFFALOES 1963-64

Well, another summer has come and gone, and with the football season growing to an exciting close that cold, cold season we know as winter is back with us again. It's time to get the blades down from the attic, also the liniment from the medicine chest. The hockey season is getting underway.

Station Winnipeg Buffaloes put up a tremendous showing in the hockey wars in the 1962-63 season. The station team was entered in the Inter-Lake League (Intermediate "B"). They wound up in a play-off berth but were beaten out in the semi-final round by River-ton. The station team also entered the MAHA Intermediate "B" play-downs and again made it to the semi-final round when the flu bug hit the team and there just weren't enough healthy players left to finish the series with Miami, Man. The climax to the RCAF Buffalo's active season was the Training Command Playdowns. The Buffaloes defeated Stations Gimli and Penhold here in the West to gain a berth in the finals that were being held in Camp Borden. The Buffaloes lost the first game of a two game total point series 6 to 5 but came back to win the second game 10 to 4 and take the series 15 goals to 10 and bring the AVM Bryans trophy back to Winnipeg.

It looks like another good season as the team is entered in the Inter-Lake Intermediate League. The 20 game schedule should open sometime around the 15th of Dec. The team played only six home games out of a season total of almost 40. This year though, the team hopes to play some in the arena and some at the University of Manitoba campus rink.

The three teams on the station (Flyers, Officer Cadets and Buffaloes) held combined practice this past week in the arena. A lot of new faces were seen and it looks as though all three teams should be strengthened.

Most of last year's Buffaloes are back with the team again. Sgt. Ed Hoffner is back at the helm as coach this year with his able assistant Robby Robertson, last year's team captain. Cpl. Muck Reading who was on the team in 1960 and 1961, played last year in Clinton but thanks to a timely transfer he will most likely be back in harness again on the blue line. Sorry to say that Don Ericson, who played for the Buffaloes for the past four or five seasons, will be playing hockey European style this year in No. 2 F Wing. He was a great asset to the team last year.

As this is just the first week of practices, the hard work hasn't started yet. Anyone interested in playing hockey this year should contact the Station Rec. Centre for practice times. The Buffaloes are looking for an equipment manager this year so anyone interested should contact Sgt. Ed Hoffner at local 442.

More from the Buffaloes' camp next week.

CBC-TV GREY CUP COVERAGE

Ever since the Calgary Stampede and their happy army of supporters from Western Canada invaded Toronto in 1948, pre-Grey Cup game activities have generated almost as much excitement as the game.

This year the Grey Cup is being played in Vancouver on Saturday, Nov. 30, and starting at 11 a.m. CST, CBC television brings to Canadian homes from coast to coast, coverage of the colorful pre-game festivities.

First on the schedule of Grey Cup programs is a live telecast of the Grey Cup Parade (11-12:30 CST). CBC cameras pick up the parade as it passes the reviewing stand on Georgia Street. Commentators are Bill Herbert and Bob Switzer.

Among the 100 entries in the parade are floats, bands, marching units, beauty contestants, majorities, and clowns. The three Canadian armed services are represented by one marching unit and one band from each service.

Highlight of Friday night's activities is the Miss Grey Cup Pageant, telecast Saturday afternoon from 12:30-1:30 p.m. CST. Site for this year's pageant is the Commodore Cabaret in Vancouver where Miss Grey Cup will be selected and crowned.

Entertainment at the pageant is provided by singer Juliette and comedian Dave Broadfoot. Special guests are last year's Miss Grey Cup, Renata Pikelis of Ottawa, and Carol Ann Balmer, Miss Canada 1964.

CBC-TV also carries a Grey Cup review from 2:00-2:30 p.m. CST, with photos and film clips of past Grey Cup games, and a review of some of this year's playoff games.

The 1963 Grey Cup Game telecast begins at 2:30 p.m. CST.

MINOR HOCKEY

Registrations now have reached the one hundred and fifty mark which is far beyond expectations. We regret that this season we will be unable to provide hockey for boys above Bantam "B" age which is anyone who has turned 14 years old since July 31, 1963. As this is our first full season of operation, it can be seen that most of the equipment needed has to be acquired this year. Next year more equipment can be obtained to increase the amount of teams we are able to sponsor.

Minor hockey has a bright future at Station Winnipeg and deserves your encouragement. Any question you may have will be gladly answered by any member of the club. Don't be satisfied with advice from anyone or any other source. Ask someone who knows.

Following are some of the club members: M. D. Smith, N. Rose, H. Theede, R. W. Crebo, K. Cole-ridge, D. E. Wilson, Bud MacAskill, J. Dyck, W. Whitehead, C. D. Hahn, S. J. Skinner, R. Morrison.

VOLLEYBALL AND BADMINTON

A meeting will be held 10:00 hrs. Saturday, 22 Nov. '63 at the Rec. Centre gym to determine if there are enough people interested in forming a Community Volleyball League and a Badminton League. These are sports the whole family can enjoy. They will be held in the Rec. Centre Friday nights and Saturdays. These leagues will be formed only if a reasonable number of people want to participate. If you are interested be sure to attend.

SHARK SWIM CLUB NEWS

Four members of the RCAF Shark Swim Club journeyed to Camp Shilo to participate in one of the larger swimming meets of the year. Strong competition in the 37 events was offered by the 250 swimmers from 10 swim clubs.

Linda Waroway and Patricia Hope did very well in their heats for the 50 yd butterfly and the 100 yd breast stroke but failed to qualify for the finals.

Garry Hope, the Shark Swim team Captain qualified for the finals and, after a very close finish in the 100 yd breast stroke, ended up in 4th place.

Pentti Karkkainen established a new Manitoba record in the 25 yd free style in 17.8 seconds. Congratulations Pentti!

The calibre of swimming at this meet was so high that 12 Manitoba records were broken. The fine organization of the meet and the hospitality shown by the personnel at Camp Shilo were greatly appreciated by all swimmers.

The next swim meet will be held at Lipsett Hall on December 1st. It is hoped that our Sharks Swim Club will be able to enter several swimmers in all age group events.

Diving classes were postponed because of minor repairs to the diving board. This has now been remedied and practices are on again from 1100 hrs to 1300 hrs Saturdays.

New members for the Shark Swim Club are welcome to try out for a place on the team. Practice times are Tuesdays 1700 to 1900 hrs and Saturdays 1800 to 1900 hrs.

FAR NORTHERN TOUR

A four-day tour of armed forces' bases in the Far North by a group of CBC radio and television performers has been scheduled for mid-December.

The tour will consist of stops at the Department of Northern Affairs base at Frobisher Bay, the combined-services base at Fort Churchill, Man., and the RCAF base at Resolute, on the tip of Cornwallis Island.

The arrangements were made jointly by the Department of National Defence, Department of Northern Affairs and the CBC.

The cast of entertainers comprises comedian Gordie Tapp, vocalists Claudette, Tommy Hunter and Marilee Ross, the Rhythm Pals, the Hansen Sisters violin duo, the dancing Lounsbury Sisters and the Bert Niosi Octet.

While in the North, a half-hour Armed Forces Showcase program will be recorded for later broadcast on the CBC radio network.

RETIREMENT OF SABRES

The last of the RCAF Sabres in Europe has been retired. No. 439 Sabre Tooth Tiger Squadron, the last of the RCAF NATO Squadrons flying the well-known jet fighters, has stood down.

The squadron based at Marville, France will be reformed early in 1964, following a change in equipment and role. It will then be flying the supersonic CR-104 Starfighter in a strike reconnaissance role, a change from the interceptor role it has filled since 1952.

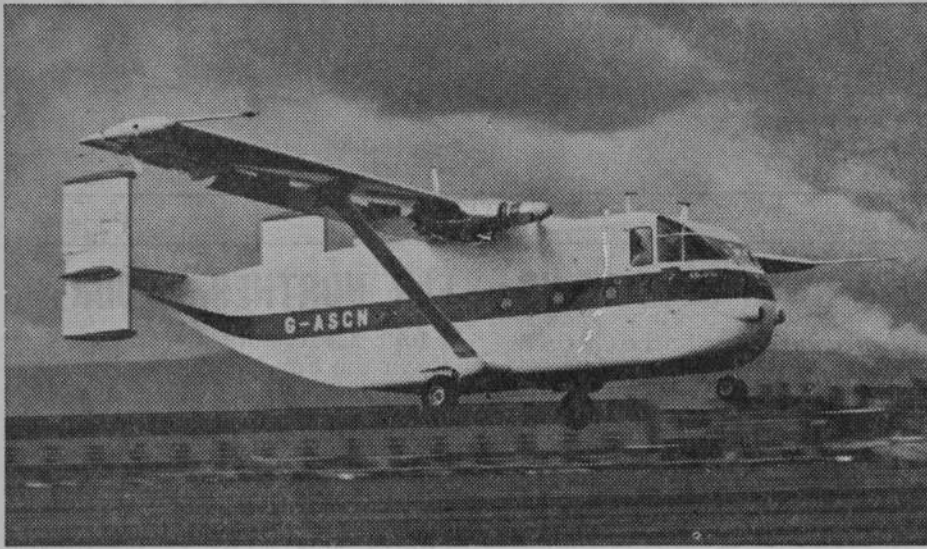

No. 439 Squadron has been serving with NATO for almost 12 years, since its arrival on June 15, 1962 at North Luffenham, England, as the third squadron on strength of the newly formed No. 1 Wing. The wing later moved to Marville.

The retired Sabres were flown to Prestwick, Scotland, for disposal action.

TURBO SKYVAN

The Turbo Skyvan, light freighter aircraft, takes off on its first flight from the Short Brothers and Harland airfield at Belfast.

With a top cruising speed of 220 miles per hour the Turbo Skyvan, a derivative of the piston-engined Skyvan, can carry a payload of 2 tons at a speed of 172 miles per hour over a stage length of 230 miles.

Several airline operators, including Wien Alaska Airlines and Northern Consolidated, also of Alaska, and Trans Australian Airlines have stated their intention to order the aircraft if flight development proceeds satisfactorily.

Manufacturer: Short Brothers and Harland, Belfast, Northern Ireland.

Why Airmen All Love Sarah

Picture yourself in this situation. You're flying a mission over the fog-shrouded North Sea. Suddenly your jet's engine flames out. After a hastily transmitted "Mayday," you eject from your crippled aircraft. As you float downward through the fog, you think of survival.

Visibility: 300 yards. Water temperature: Near freezing. Rescue craft in the vicinity: None. Possibility of survival: Poor.

For RAF Flying Officer N. R. Williams, this was no fantasy.

Forced to bail out of his Hawker Hunter jet over the North Sea, Williams had only one thing working for him. SARAH.

As he struggled in the freezing water, William pulled the top off a small tube clipped to his life vest. A steel tape-type antenna sprung erect and the tube automatically began to transmit a continuous distress signal.

Miles away, a special Search and Rescue helicopter, advised of Williams' "Mayday," was already in the air. With visibility diminishing, it picked up the airman's signal strong and clear, and began to home-in.

What were Williams' chances? How did SARAH affect them?

The small tube clipped to Williams' life vest was a SARAH transmitter, an electronic beacon designed to locate downed airmen and astronauts. When he removed its top, Williams opened a 20 hour can of survival—the life span of SARAH's tiny battery.

Sold initially in England, SARAH's original design stemmed from research performed at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology during World War II. In 1953, Simmonds Precision Products, Inc. of Tarrytown, New York, acquired U.S. rights to the system and continued its development.

Today, as one of the mainstays of the Project Mercury recovery system, SARAH has ridden with every U.S. astronaut sent aloft.

SARAH helped get M. Scott Carpenter home when his Aurora 7 Capsule overshot the recovery zone by 250 miles. And the architects of Walter Schirra's six orbit flight have indicated their faith in SARAH by choosing, for the first time, the entire Pacific as the next recovery area.

While SARAH's most publicized performance has been its role in the Mercury Project, the system's terrestrial job is of equal importance. Performing in the role for which it was originally cast—personnel location—SARAH has aided the rescue of airmen throughout the free world.

Because of SARAH, 90 minutes after pilot Williams bailed out of his crippled jet, he stepped ashore from the rescue helicopter—wet and cold, but alive and ready to fly another day.

"We were miles away from Williams when we first picked up his signal," the helicopter pilot, J. W.

Thompson, said later. "And we were within 200 yards of him before he was seen. If we had been on a visual search in that weather, he never would have been found."

The SARAH system that located Flying Officer Williams, Astronaut Scott Carpenter, and a host of others has three basic parts. The tiny transmitter or radio beacon, is carried by the airman. Slightly larger than a toothbrush container, it weighs approximately 11 ounces. Removal of the metal cap covering the antenna actuates SARAH.

The battery pack, also carried by the airman, weighs about 40 ounces. It is designed for 20-hour operation at sub-freezing temperatures.

A special receiver is the heart of the SARAH system. Its bread-box size makes it simple to install in search craft. Its weight is approximately 21 pounds. The dominant feature of the SARAH receiver is a cathode-ray tube which visually displays the beacon's signal. Its position on the face of the tube indicates the direction to the transmitting beacon. Using this receiver display as a guide, the search craft can pinpoint the transmitter to within a few feet of its location.

Normally, Flying Officer Williams would have been the focal point of a gigantic air-sea rescue operation. Dozens, possibly hundreds, of aircraft would be airborne. In the search phase of the mission, they would slowly track and retrack over the area where his aircraft purportedly went down.

In cases such as this, the survivor's life depends primarily on the sharp eyes of the aircrews. But sometimes the eyes don't have it. After searching mile after mile of ocean, jungle, or desert, they tire. Other times there aren't enough eyes in the air to search quickly an area thousands of miles square.

As Williams or Scott Carpenter attest, a single SARAH equipped aircraft can do the job more efficiently than hundreds of eyes. At 10,000 feet, it can pick up a SARAH signal at a distance of 150 miles. Cruising at 200 miles per hour, it can easily scan an 80,000 square mile area in a four hour flight—and leave it knowing a crash survivor, signaling frantically, hasn't been left behind to die.

In any kind of flying weather, SARAH can bring the crash survivors home. Environmental or climatic conditions do not affect the transmission or reception of its signals.

For several years, SARAH has been standard equipment for the NATO Air Forces. Late in 1961, the USAF Alaskan Air Command purchased SARAH after making an intensive study of the system. As part of the evaluation they conducted operational tests which pitted SARAH against other location systems. The results showed that downed airmen carrying SARAH have a 50% better chance of being located alive than personnel equipped with standard military rescue beacons.

On the heels of this study, the U.S. Pacific Air Force completed their own evaluation of SARAH. Early in 1962 they adopted the system and the beacons now fly aboard every PACAF plane.

With its widespread use today by 26 nations, SARAH is well on its way to becoming a world-wide location system—a true life net for downed airmen no matter where they fly.

VOLLEYBALL

Once again RCAF Station Winnipeg has a representative team competing in the City Senior "B" Volleyball League. League play commenced on the 4th of November with the RCAF team defeating the Manitoba Teachers' College two games to one. Thursday, the 14th of November, they again fared well against a Fort Osborne Barracks team. However, the win was defaulted as the Air Force team was short a player.

Volleyball players wishing to try out for the team are asked to contact Cpl Schilds at Local 511 or F/L J. J. Stangroom at Local 626.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY AFHQ

Two hundred and thirty-nine young men from across Canada recently enrolled in the Royal Canadian Air Force under the terms of the Regular Officer Training Plan, an officer programme common to the Navy, Army and Air Force. They will receive a combined military and university education in preparation for a career in the RCAF as commissioned officers.

Of these, 137 have been accepted for entry into the three Canadian Service Colleges: Royal Roads, near Victoria, B.C.; the Royal Military College of Canada, Kingston, Ont.; and College Militaire Royal de Saint-Jean, Qus. The remaining 102 will attend selected universities.

Each summer some 700 senior and junior matriculants from high schools across Canada are selected by Canada's three Services under the Regular Officer Training Plan, to attend one of the three Canadian Services Colleges or a Canadian university.

Students of senior Matriculation standing enrolled at Royal Roads and College Militaire Royal de Saint-Jean, which is a bilingual college, attend for two years and are then transferred to the Royal Military College for an additional two years to complete their education for a degree.

For those students accepted with a junior matriculation, a further preparatory year is offered at College Militaire Royal de Saint-Jean.

The students attending universities are provided with tuition, board, lodging, uniforms, books, instruments, medical and dental care, and are paid a basic monthly salary. Like their counterparts at the Canadian Services Colleges, during the summer recess they are attached to a military unit and employed on regular military duties.

The Regular Officer Training Plan is one of the main sources of career officers for the Armed Forces.

THE SOFT SELL

The mother was concerned that the boy might have forgotten his manners at the birthday party. "Are you sure you didn't ask Tommy's mother for a second piece of cake?" she inquired.

"Heck, no, mom. I just asked her if I could bring the recipe home to you and she insisted on giving me two more pieces."

SOMETIMES IT HURTS

"Are you troubled much by your children telling lies?" one mother asked of another.

"Not as much," replied her friend, "as by their telling the truth at inappropriate times."
